

Our “Through the wardrobe” topic this half term has been brilliant, but it is drawing to an end now. All the children have enjoyed The Chronicles of Narnia story and have loved exploring life in the past.

We are planning to finish off our topic, with: an “Evacuee dress up day” on Thursday 15th February.

There will be lots of lovely activities throughout the day, including a tea party in the afternoon.

We would like to invite your child to dress up as an evacuee for the day. Here are some ideas of how children dressed during world war II.
